- Our congregation and community supported the purchase and installation of a new washing machine, which doubled our capacity to provide laundry services to our folks.
- Our staff and case manager testified before the city council for policy reform around access to public bathrooms. Additionally, we hosted a roundtable discussion with city, state, and federal policymakers advocating for policy change to remove the barriers to safe and sustainable housing for our neighbors experiencing homelessness.
- With the help of a grant from the United Methodist Conference, we expanded computer access adding another computer station and a printer.
- We created a lending library for our guests to have access to books.

THE CENTER
PHILADELPHIA

Our mission:

The Center - Philadelphia is available and accessible to all people.

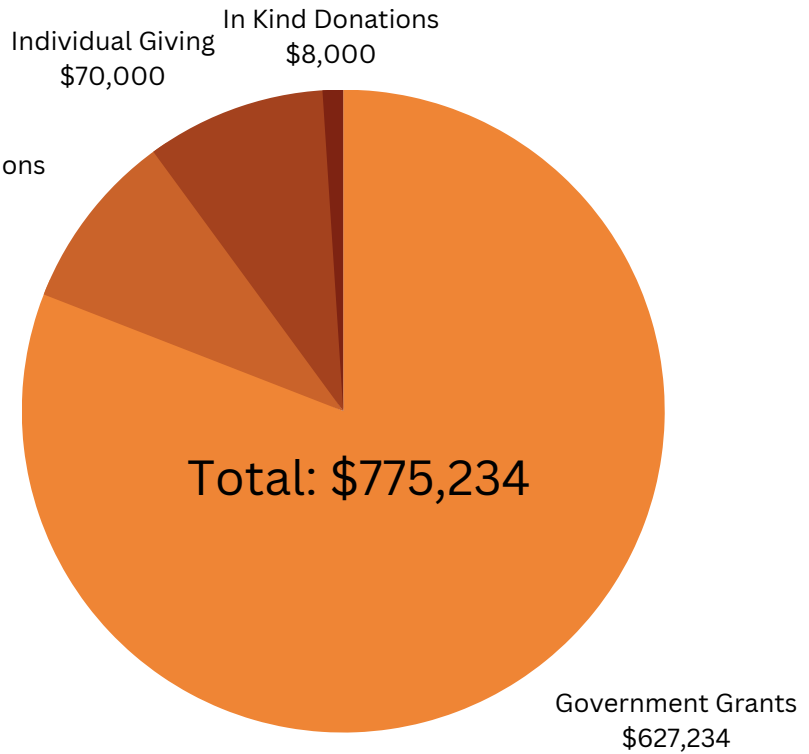

The Center is open to all persons, no matter how they identify, including without regard to age, race, ethnic background, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, economic or marital status, physical or mental ability, immigration status, and spiritual tradition.

The Center is an incubator for people from all walks of life, spiritual traditions, academic disciplines, and artistic expressions to create circles of human fellowship that generate synergy (justice, peace, love) and a life force that changes the world.
